YACHT DECOR

Exclusive

Lovely furnishings made with prestigious materials to adorn the home with originality and luxury, but also perfect on board

by Marta Bernasconi

1. Sculptural shapes for the Acmeto low table with its mix of select materials, like the smoked glass top and three metal and marble supports. By Visionare

2. Tough yet playful. Spun by Magia, which can revolve through 360°, celebrates its 10th anniversary. Made from a single piece of polyethylene.
3. The Calates armchair - and the name itself - by Pianca is inspired by the South American plant. The wooden legs support an embracing shell that can be personalised with a range of upholstery solutions.

4. Part of the Gianfranco Ferré Home collection, Matrix is a low table comprising three elements of different height. The back-chromed metal frame supports moveable surfaces in water-lined wood.

7. The ceramic doors of the Doppler K sideboard by Beraldo display distinctive, playful graphics. The design's minimal, original lines are clear in the metal base. Wooden frame
